III. Reports

a. Back to school update

JOM IEC Manager/Indian Education Director, Raphaelita Phillips, gave members an update on the plan for reentry and back to school plans for CISD. She updated them on the different zones and plans that went with those zones, based on what was decided upon by the district leadership team. She also informed them about the decisions that had been made at the state level from the New Mexico Public Education Department. IEC members had several questions that Mrs Phillips addressed, based on the back to school plan and remote learning plans for the upcoming semester. IEC members requested that more information be provided at their next meeting by the representatives in charge of remote learning, and after school had started, so they could hear pros and cons of remote learning thus far.

IV. Old Business

a. IEC New Member findings

i. Start advertising?

JOM Manager/Indian Education Director, Raphaelita Phillips, reiterated the update from her findings of her research into recruiting a new IEC member. It was then decided by IEC members that advertising continue, based on the results that potential future IEC members would have to represent the Middle School, rather than a specific community. It was decided that Mrs Phillips continue to recruit and advertise for the position.

V. New Business

a. JOM survey questions

i. IEC input

JOM Manager/Indian Education Director, Raphaelita Phillips gave IEC members an update on the JOM Needs Assessment Survey that she had developed. She read questions out to IEC members and asked for any edits/suggestions to modify the survey but IEC members were satisfied with the questions as they were. The IEC members gave Mrs Phillips the approval to move forward to sending the Needs Assessment Survey out to parents as part of back to school registration requirements.
